Kelley,
 High?!!? You are a good friend. We have done a lot of partying & I hope we can keep on partyin'.
 High School has been fun & we still have another year to raise hell. I wish you
 the best with Jerry. Stay sweet & stay out of trouble
 friends 4 ever,
 Brenda

Kelley,
 you are a funny
 girl sometimes,
 and crazy. but you are sweet. you luck in the good future.

Kelly,
 Always give you news
 no about. When you have fun in everything go do. I know you will.
 Because I like it very
 you friend
 George

Kelly,
 High! It has been nice knowing you this year and I hope we will become better friends in the future. Stay out of trouble and be good.
 take care of Jerry. Alright

Ki Sweetie
 I love you and ya.
 I've been a great friend to you. I'm glad I got to know. In your hand, I hope you are hand in your hand. I want you to get along great. I want you to take care and make your life better. I love you.

Kelly

You are really sweet

Funky Favorites

OHS students were asked in a poll taken by the Trojan Staff to express their opinions on various subjects. Several observations were made from the results obtained. For example, Mork and Mindy ran away as the most watched television show. It was also noticed that students favored the larger gas-guzzling automobiles rather than the smaller economical cars.

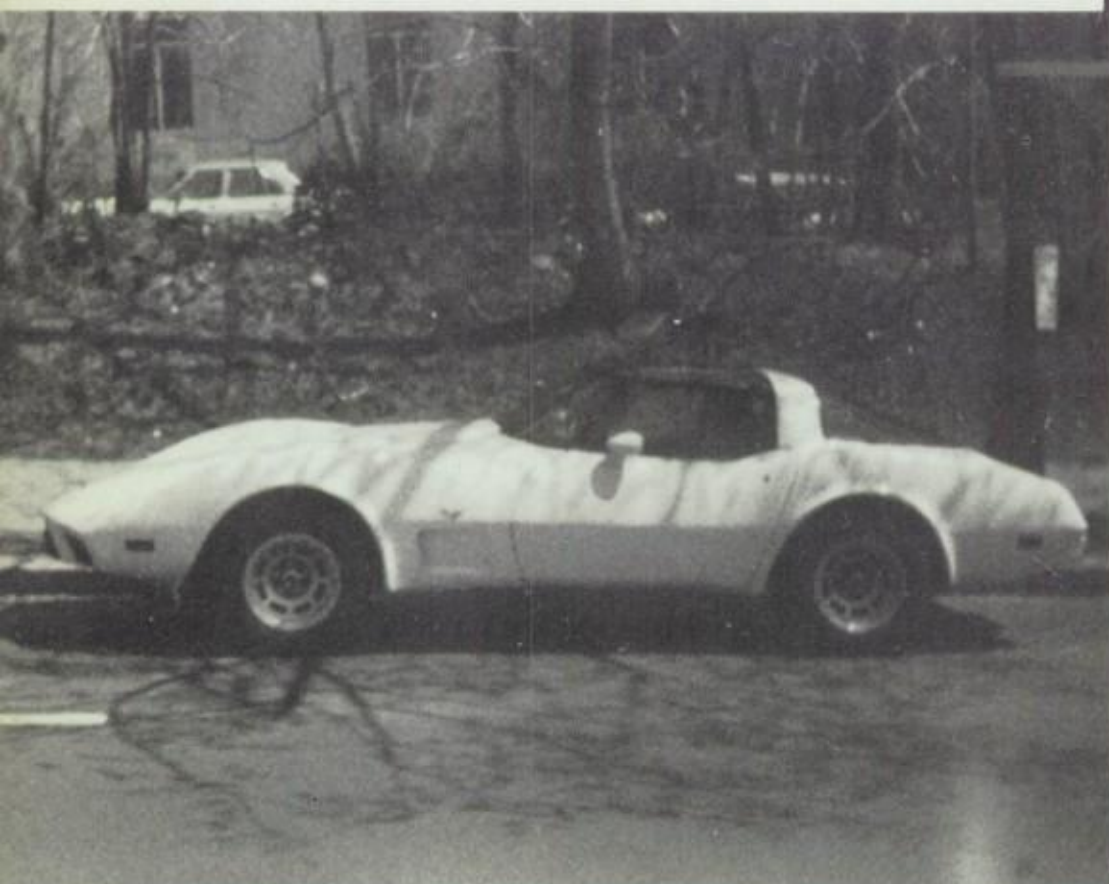

It is also discovered that many students could not follow directions or had difficulty in making one choice. When asked to specify "yes" or "no," often the answer was "maybe."

Here are the results:

Kelly, I really enjoyed having you last year in home Ec. I really did get to know you. We became close.
 I will never forget the time you hit that mailbox, or that night in Packer.
 I feel so close to you cause of all the talks we have had. But most of all, you were there several times. Although we have had some ruff times things are still the same. We have alot of tripping memories to remember. Good Luck in Life. God Bless ya. May you and Jerry go far in life. you really are a cute couple.
 But of course he is my bro.

Love ya Sis

Cheerleaders

There were three cheer-leading squads for the 78-79 school year.

The wrestling squad consisted of four girls. Shelly Brugoon, junior; Erin Mulford, sophomore; Bridgette Ray, freshman; and Jane Heckart, freshman.

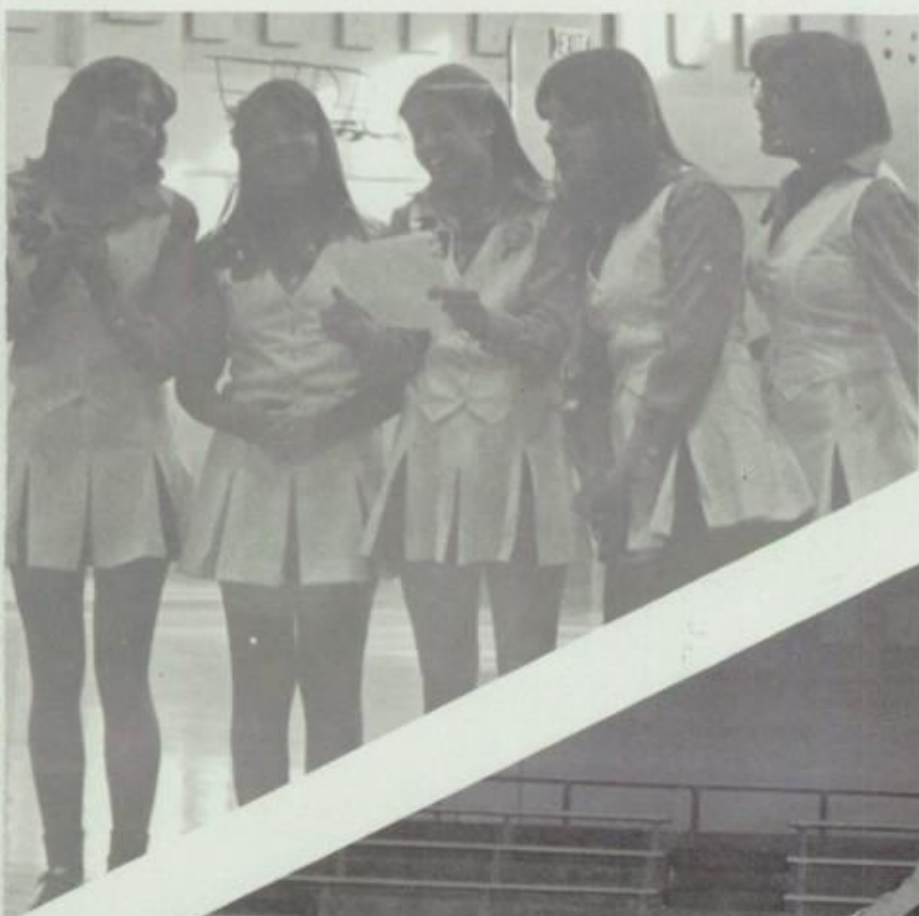

Mary Johnston, freshman; Angie West, sophomore; Angela Goodeyon, freshman; Michelle Crozier, sophomore; and Lina McGee, sophomore, made up the B-team squad. Also, they got to cheer quite a bit as the Varsity was short on help.

Trojanettes

The Trojannettes prospered in more ways than one. They invited other schools to perform and showed each of them up. They missed one football performance due to their uniforms, but made a good show for the crowd when they did perform.

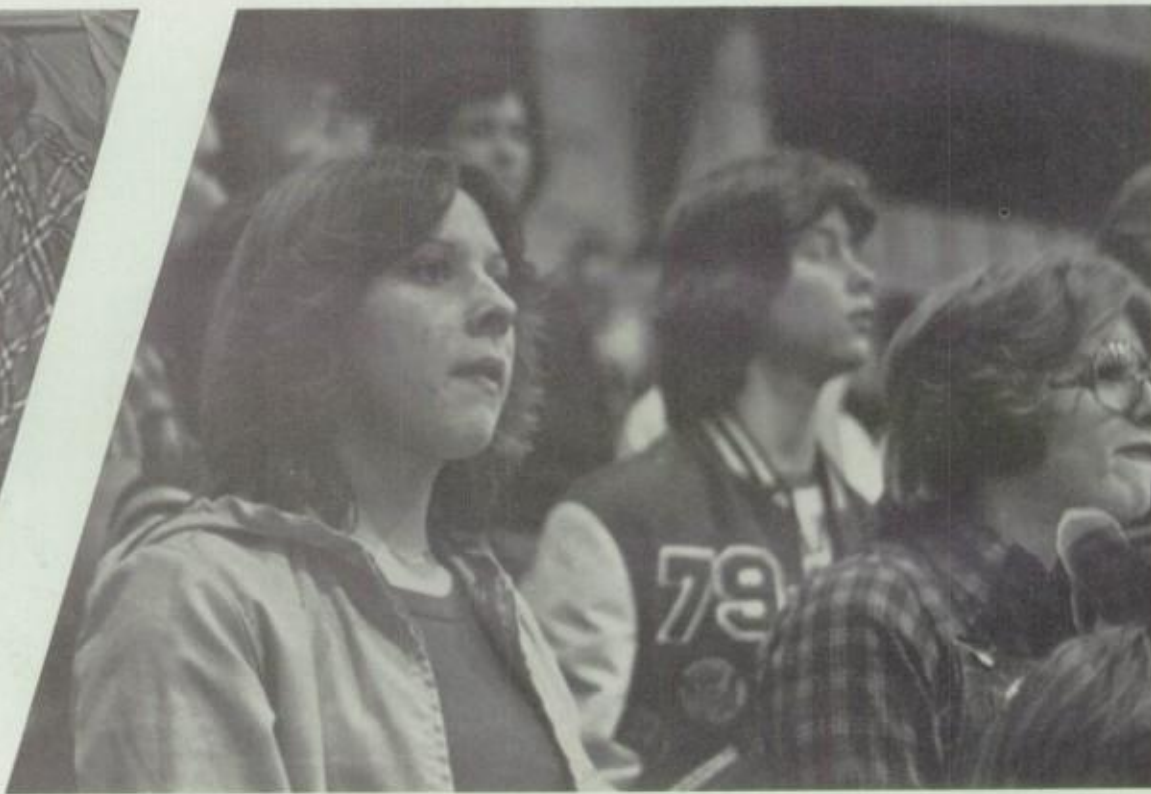

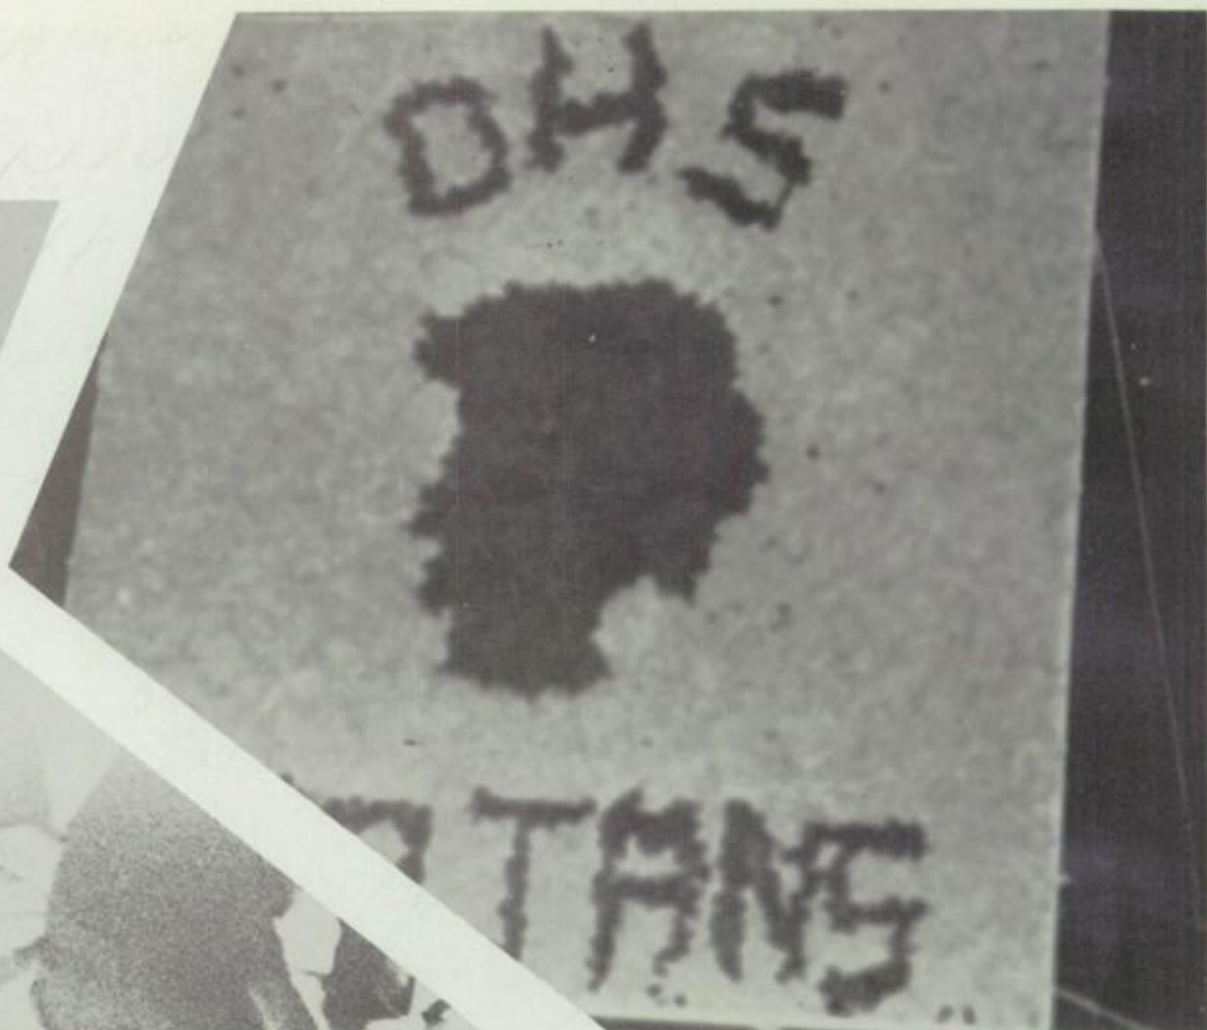

Left: Debbie Throener, Brenda Bonham, and Melody Matney see how low they can go in Born to Hand Jive.

Lower Left: Lynette Sanders, Debbie Throener, Brenda Bonham, Sharon Almenderez and Julie Jordan change their style a little bit. Instead of performing to music, they sing their own and don't dance.

What was your biggest problem in moving to a foreign country?

Kim: Learning the language.

Ulrica: The language was difficult, but American History was my hardest class.

Is dating the same there as here?

Kim: No, the girl pays her part and the boy pays his.

Ulrica: In Sweden, there is no "system" to dating. Normally, the teenagers meet at a particular place and all go together somewhere.

What sports are popular in Sweden?

Ulrica: Tennis and skiing are popular, but soccer is everyone's favorite.

Kim: And baseball is getting very popular!

Do women get involved in sports?

Kim: Yes, women are often on teams with men.

Ulrica: In fact, they have gym together.

In what way do the American and the Swedish differ the most?

Ulrica: Americans are much more sociable.

Kim: The Swedish people are quieter.

How does Swedish fashion compare with American fashion?

Kim: Swedish people are much more up on the latest fashions.

What music group is the favorite of Swedish teenagers?

Ulrica: Abba.

How would Swedish morals compare with American morals?

Ulrica: The Swedish are looser.

How does the cost of living compare?

Kim: Swedish goods are two to three times higher.

What are the restrictions in Swedish schools?

Ulrica: Skipping is not as serious as here. You are allowed to skip more, and you are graded mainly on attitude.

What do you do for recreation in Sweden?

Kim: I did a lot of walking — almost eight miles a day!

What is the role of women in Sweden?

Ulrica: They are pushing hard to be more and more liberated.

Do you have any regrets?

OHS Exchange

Osawatomie High School enjoyed the privilege this year of hosting a foreign exchange student, Ulrica Cederblad, of Jarna, Sweden. Sponsored by the Osawatomie Rotary Club, Ulrica arrived in August at the same time that OHS senior, Kim Lagasse, left to spend the school year in Falun, Sweden.

Kim returned two weeks before graduation, and the Trojan staff was able to interview both Kim and Ulrica. Here are some excerpts from that interview:

Kim: Absolutely none!

Ulrica: None whatsoever.

Would you like to live in your new country permanently?

Ulrica: I'm not sure, but I am planning to come back. I'm considering going to KU to study either psychology or art.

Kim: I'm not sure, either, but I would like to go back.

Mr. and Miss Trojan was run a little differently this year. The voting was changed so that everyone, including the teachers, became involved. We feel that this eliminated the "popular" student, and took into hand other aspects such as leadership, academics, responsibility, and school spirit. Another big difference was the assembly. Instead of having a short, routine one it was decided to make it more special this year. So a speaker, Mrs. John Billam, and an emcee, John Wilson were brought in. The band also played for the audience's entertainment. It is hoped that this tradition will be carried on so that every upcoming senior can have a nice assembly to look forward to. We would also like to thank Andy Protzman, and Tara Montgomery for being crownbearers.

Awards Assembly

"Outstanding" was the adjective many presenters of awards used to describe members of the class of '79.

Top Right: Congratulations from Mr. Swenson go to valedictorian Terri Bond and salutatorian Scott Day, who have just been introduced by Mr. Brown.

Below: Presenting a business award to Jodi Baumstimler are Mrs. Slawson and Mrs. Montgomery.

Graduation Preparation

Two traditions vanished as the class of '79 prepared for graduation. For the first time in years, the setting was to be outside on the football field rather than in the gym. Also, the class elected to have their valedictorian and salutatorian deliver the address rather than the customary guest speaker.

School officials fretted as the weather forecast changed daily, but the clouds stayed away.
